

Digital Storyteller

Summer 2020

Havaya Arts seeks a creative photographer and videographer to join our team as the Digital Storyteller this summer. Havaya Arts is a high-quality arts and summer camp experience where kids explore the arts and Judaism in their own ways and become the best versions of themselves. Based onsite at Scripps College (Claremont, CA), the Digital Storyteller supports our lively, welcoming, and progressive Jewish community.

Description:

The Digital Storyteller will capture the daily life of camp on film and will teach the Digital Photography Studio. They will collaborate with the director team on curriculum; engage with the larger camp community, including counselors, staff, and campers not in their studio; and support our focus on “camper driven, original art.”

The Digital Storyteller will:

- Take daily photos of camp activities and upload them regularly to CampMinder.
- Creatively implement our social media plan on Facebook, Instagram, and YouTube.
- Create a variety of short marketing and weekly recap videos on both specific and general camp topics.
- Manage an organized archive of all photos and videos from the summer season.
- Develop and teach a 90-minute digital photography studio each day.
- Work closely with other teaching artists and director team while planning, preparing, and implementing the studio and other camp programming. Guide counselors to effectively assist in studio.
- Prepare teaching space and submit supply requests as needed.
- Participate fully in camp life.
- Elevate the fun and joy of being at camp and making art.
- Be able to work with a diverse group of staff members and campers in a respectful, calm, and appropriate manner at all times.
- Attend in-camp training sessions and staff meetings as required.
- Be available for the duration of the summer season (June 5 - July 29).

Qualified candidates will:

- Have a minimum of 3 years experience with photography, videography, editing — and teaching.
- Have access to, and knowledge of, video and audio equipment, laptop, and editing software.
- Possess basic facility with social media platforms, particularly Facebook and Instagram.
- Have experience with, and a love of, working closely with kids.
- Possess an openness towards weaving Judaism and our core values into studio and general camp life.
- Be enthusiastic about working in a collaborative, immersive environment.

Compensation: $1,800 - $3,000, based on experience. Housing and meals provided.

To apply: Please send a brief letter of interest (one paragraph) and resume to Julianne Schwartz, Camp Director, at Julianne@HavayaArts.org. The subject of the email should read “Digital Storyteller Application.” Please include photo and/or video samples; if you have a digital portfolio or website, please share that as well! Please, no calls at this time.
